

Colloquium Anatolicum

Guidelines for Authors

1. Colloquium Anatolicum is published annually by the Turkish Institute of Archaeology (Institutum Turcicum Scientiae Antiquitatis) and features proceedings, original research articles and book reviews on history, archeology, philology, epigraphy of the ancient world.
2. Manuscripts must be written in clear and concise Turkish, German or English. They should not contain content that has been previously published in a peer reviewed journal or in other citable medium, whether in print or electronic. The editorial committee accepts only text files in MS Word format, with single line spacing and 12 pt font size (Times New Roman). Articles should not exceed 15 A4 pages including the photographs and illustrations. Bibliographic references should be cited within the text (see Art. 9) and explanatory footnotes must be given below the page with a font size of 10 pt.
3. The articles should contain a summary not exceeding 150 words and five keywords both in Turkish and in English.
4. The number of diagrams, maps, drawings and photographs should not exceed 20 in total.
5. Descriptions for the photographs and artwork must include their sources (if applicable) and be submitted on a separate paper.
6. All types of visual material in digital format must be 15 cm long with a resolution of 300 pixel/inch minimum; in case the image is intended to be a full-page one, then the long side must measure 22 cm. Digital images should be submitted in TIFF/JPEG format, executable in Adobe Photoshop. Images embedded in another program (e.g. Microsoft Word) will not be accepted. Drawings prepared in drawing programs should be delivered in their original format without any conversion.
7. Please upload the full text (including figures) as a single MS Word (Microsoft Word 2010 or newer versions) file and as PDF to the journal's page on the DergiPark site. Figures should also be uploaded separately.
8. Bibliography should be provided at the end of the article. Citations should be listed in alphabetical order as follows:
